Report of Selectmen

To the citizens of Randolph:

The cover pictures on previous Town Reports have all been views from Randolph Valley. This year we have selected a view from Randolph Hill, an important part of our summer colony.

The other pictures in these Reports will give some idea of the Town's latest acquisitions. Two reservations have recently been given to the Town: "Coldbrook Falls Reservation" was deeded to the Town in 1947 by Edith W. Boothman and the heirs of Louis F. Cutter in memory of Laban Morrill Watson and his wife, Anna Burbank Watson, and of Louis Fayerweather Cutter and his wife, Mary Osgood Cutter. In 1949 the Mossy Glen reservation, known as "The Carol Williams Horton Memorial" was deeded to the town by Reverend Douglas Horton.

Pictures fail to capture the simple charm of natural beauty of these spots. One must follow the shaded trails by these sparkling mountain streams to appreciate fully their quiet beauty. The Town is most appreciative of these gifts that assure the unmarred beauty for years to come.

Last year's advertising program seemed to meet with a good deal of approval and success. It appears again in this year's warrant.

The lifeguard arrangements were most successfully carried out by Charles Carrington. This year's warrant will, if approved, again make the necessary provision for this valuable service. It is hoped Charley will be available for the coming season.

Randolph's real estate value continues to grow. Several new houses and substantial improvements on existing homes have been accomplished this past year.

Mr. George Schneemann has completed and operated this past season 8 new cabins under the name of Mt. Jefferson Tourist Court.

Mr. Harry Sweet has made substantial improvements on his buildings; Reverend Douglas Horton has added a new 2 car garage and a four room addition to the former Blood cottage; Mr. Clifton Edgerly's house under construction last year is nearly completed; Mr. H. L. Malcolm continues to make great strides in the renovation and improvement of his summer home, Midlands

Farm; Colonel Breyton of Washington, D. C., has completed a new summer home on Randolph Hill.

The former summer home of Dr. E. R. B. McGee has been purchased by Miss N. Howard, a long time summer resident of Randolph. Many changes have already been accomplished on this, one of Randolph's original farmhouses. The house itself has been moved several hundred feet from the road, a heating plant has been installed and the building has been completely reconditioned inside and out.

Judge Walcott's summer home on Randolph Hill has been purchased by Reverend Stephen Crary of New Haven, Conn. He has added a new wing and made extensive repairs on the existing building.

Reverend Alfred Burns of Bridgeport, Conn., has completed a compact summer cottage just off the High Acres Road on Randolph Hill. He is already planning an addition this coming year.

Mrs. Lloyd Folsom of Orange, N. J., has completed a new summer home on the High Acres Road. This is the third home of more modern architecture to be built in Randolph with Bliss Woodruff as architect.

The above mentioned construction does not include the many and frequent repairs of routine maintenance which Randolph home owners are continually making. It is most gratifying to the Town to note that property owners take such pride in the appearance of their buildings.

Changes in property which have not already been mentioned are these: Colonel Harold Griggs has purchased the Mt. Adams Restaurant and Cottages from Mr. George Schneemann; Fayfount was purchased by Mr. Edward Cleary of Providence, R. I; Mr. Tullie R. Wheeler from New London, Conn., has purchased the home of Howard T. Woodward on the Randolph Hill Road.

Once again on behalf of the Town we wish to welcome these new year round and summer residents of Randolph.

There are four articles in this year's Town Warrant that have not been considered in recent years:

Article No. 17 provides for the appropriation to carry out the Town's Civil Defense program. This, as everyone knows, is not unique to Randolph, but is being pressed on a nation wide basis.

The Town's supply of advertising folders is exhausted and Article No. 19 would provide the necessary funds for a new supply. Attractive folders are a great help towards encouraging new business and property owners.

It has been felt by many that parking space at the Town Hall is inadequate. Article No. 21 would provide for the grading and gravelling of additional space.

In the past it has been customary for the Town to take over road maintenance when taxable property of considerable consequence is effected. The section of road mentioned in Article No. 22 services eight summer homes at the present time and it is quite likely that more building will occur in the near future.

Your Selectmen have appreciated the cooperation of their fellow townsmen throughout the past year. It is their hope that this summary of major developments since the last Town Meeting may prove to be of interest to all and that some of the items in the Town Warrant may be clarified by this report.
